

Grooming Zone

Some use aftershave
And some use moisturiser
Some use tins of Lynx
And couldn't smell much nicer

Some groom so hard that they perspire
They're a credit to their gender!
As they pout and preen I must admire
Their narcissistic splendour

One guy likes a lot of steam
He really should be careful
His eyes are turning skyward
And his face is turning purple

Some sport big tattoos
And some wear fancy undies
Some don't touch the booze
And some don't come on Mondays

One stays in the pool
Works very hard indeed
By swimming quite determinedly
At supersonic speeds

One basks like a crocodile
Eyeing up the fillies
But he'll have trouble with his smile
When he's done comparing willies

And me?

I carp and slag and cast about
And mock the over-zealous
Perhaps they're easy targets
Perhaps I'm only jealous

In time perhaps I'll be like them
Just one more male floozy
And you will end up just like me
And critique from the Jacuzzi
