

She is wise

She is wise
in the ways of wood
Of how the grain runs
With each new cut
Of plane and tongue
and groove and such
She knows so very very much

She is wise
In equine ways
And knows of Geldings
Mares and Colts
And with great pleasure
Come what may
She rides them almost every day

She is wise
With healing hands
She knows of remedies
Cures and salves
Of Reiki, Yoga
And Tai-Chi
She exudes karmic energy!

She is wise
In the ways of men
She knows their minds
Their willing hearts
And certain that
She'll always win
She plays them like a violin

For she is wise as wise can be
And she is far too wise for me
