

Space Invaders

It may be quite unconscious
But where I seem to go
You keep an average distance
Of six inches or so

I put an extra yard or so
Between us, to explain
I hoped you'd take the hint
But no, still on you came!

You're really not bad company
And I'm sure that you can charm
But I'd much rather keep you
At a length of one long arm

Well, Am I made of metal??
Why do you stand so close?
Am I that magnetic?
See! You're almost on my toes!!
